The power of attorney given by the late Dr K. Govindappa the donor, to Kesavaraya Setti the present-petitioner can have no effect after the death of Govindappa as the under sec: 201 of the Indian contract Act - which is in force in Mysore, the Agency created by the Power of Attorney terminates with the death of the Principal. Therefore the present-petitioner Kesavaraya Setti cannot draw the interest from the Treasury.

is also one of the executants of the G. P. A. on behalf of her minor son, if may be binding on her.

The Dr Conr has, under Rule II for the management of the Ouathalaya, nominated Mr B. S. Kesavaraya Sethi for the vacancy.

The Govt has to authorize some person, in place of late Mr Khadri Govindappa, to draw the half yearly interest. The Dr Conr recommends Mr B. S. Kesavaraya Sethi. Whether any security should be taken from Mr Kesavaraya Sethi as is done in the case of Guardians appointed by Civil Courts is a point for orders.

The institution is a major one, its annual income being Rs 800. The appointment of any one as a member of the Committee seems to require the sanction of Govt.
